v.
JAMES YATES, MS. ADEA,
RAY LARIMER,
SANDRA SANFORD

Case No. 19-CV-127-JHP-SRS

FILED

FEB 6 2020

PATRICK KEANEY
Clerk, U.S. District Court

PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR THIS DISTRICT COURT TO ~~GRANT~~

THE DEFENDANTS A 30 DAY EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
A SPECIAL REPORT, IN LIEU OF PLAINTIFF'S PRIOR REQUEST FOR A DEADLINE DATE OF FEBRUARY 18TH TO FILE AMENDED COMPLAINT

1. Upon the plaintiff's prior filing in this district court, the plaintiff requested a deadline date of FEBRUARY 18TH 2020, be set for the plaintiff, at which to amend and supplement complaint, (so that the plaintiff could be provided more access to the LAW LIBRARY), and that he notified this court of his limited access to law library material(s), which was inhibiting his progress in completing amended complaint, (and his needed assistance by law library clerks.)

2. The plaintiff is unaware as to of what date, exactly, that the defendants currently have to FILE Special Report, because the plaintiff, (for some reason), has NOT been receiving such filings in this case, to be mailed to his current prison address.

However, during the week of JANUARY 20th 2020, (at the same time plaintiff mailed, 'deadline-date-request'), the plaintiff mailed to this district court, a change of address form, completed.

3. The plaintiff does not believe that this Request, (made on behalf of the defendants, by the plaintiff), for the defendants to be given extension of time to issue Special Report, would affect any scheduling order or trial, in this case.

4. The plaintiff is unaware, if the defendant's OBJECT to this Request, (being made upon their behalf).

5. The reason for such, extension of time for the defendants to issue Special Report, of course, is because the plaintiff is still in the process of completing, to, amend his complaint.
